

THE BUSINESS OF ART

Join Gayle for an inspirational lecture and question and answer session on how to market your creations. You will go home with a packet of helpful tips and information on marketing, public service announcements, brochure and press release examples, valuable reference materials and inspirational articles. Leave class with renewed enthusiasm and a belief that you really can do anything you put your mind to. We will also network.

Gayle Rappaport-Weiland, professional and accomplished artist, teacher, consultant, curator and juror. Gayle creates a comfortable and stress-free environment where all students enjoy a successful experience. Her step-by-step approach will lead you toward your creative art and business goals.
