A Message to My Friends

The Autumn Art Studio Tour was my best to date. The holidays are upon us and I feel good things are to come. I am excited to have worked with many artists personally this year and have seen their careers blossom. My latest focus is to see my art turned into dollars for local charities. I have many thoughts and ideas on the subject. Please contact me and we can brainstorm on ways my art can help support your favorite charity. It has been an honor and pleasure working with the S12 Gallery artists. If you have not yet seen a show be sure to stop by.

Wishing you the most joyful holiday season and a healthy and artful New Year.
