

"Gayle Rappaport-Weiland, is not only a great artist, but a respected teacher of future artists. Gayle is also a business person who teaches her students the business of being an artist. Her students thrive in the market place and benefit their clients because of Gayle's instruction. That's a full pallet for any artist! We at WAVE Broadband have been happy to partner with Gayle and Placer Arts to promote the Fall Studio Tour in Placer County and help Gayle support the arts in our community."

A Message to My Friends

I have so much to be grateful for this year, because of your support I have had the best Studio Tour to date. I am really excited to see many of my students selling their work, getting into juried shows and following their dreams. Please follow me at <http://www.facebook.com/grappaportfinearts> on my Facebook fan page and subscribe to my email updates at <http://www.grappaport.com>. I have many projects that I'm working on that I can't share with you yet, but I know you will be excited about. My art is now shown in Delaware Valley Living, a magazine with a circulation of over 2 million. Thank you for your support and the help you give me with community giving. You all mean so much to me.

Warmly,
Gayle
